1. In a food processor (or using the Blendtec twister jar, if you have it), puree all ingredients. Puree until very, very smooth, stopping processor to scrape down several times throughout processing.
2. This pudding is very thick. If you’d like to thin it, you can do so with more orange juice, or a splash of nut milk or water. Best served cold. Store in Frig. Makes about 2 1/2 cups.

Vegan Cauliflower Pizza Crust (Dairy-free, Soy-free, Egg-free, Grain-free) – serves 2

- 1 pound cauliflower florets (fresh or frozen)
- 3 tablespoons ground chia or flax seeds, divided
- 6 tablespoons water
- 1/2 cup almond meal
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
- Daiya cheese (Mozzarella)(optional)

4. Cover, reduce the heat and allow to cook for 5 minutes.
5. Drain the liquid, then transfer the cooked cauliflower rice in a freezer-safe bowl. Place in the freezer to cool for 10 minutes.
6. In the meantime, mix together 2 tablespoons of ground chia or flax seeds with 6 tablespoons of water, to create a vegan “egg.” Set aside and allow the mixture to thicken.
7. Remove the cooled cauliflower rice from the freezer and transfer it to the center of a thin dish towel. Use your hands to squeeze the rice in the dish towel, removing all of the excess moisture from the cauliflower.

Medical Disclaimer: Information received from this page is not to be taken as medical or other health advice pertaining to your specific health and medical condition. Always consult a physician or health professional before beginning any protocol.
*Note: You can skip the cooking and cooling process when using frozen cauliflower. Simply allow the frozen cauliflower to thaw in your fridge overnight, which creates a “cooked” texture without having to do the extra work. Pulse the thawed cauliflower to create the rice, than drain well using a dish towel.

*Add roasted veggies of your choice to the pizza crust.

Detox Lime-Chili Stir ‘Fry’ (recipe by Ross Bridgeford)

Ingredients:
- Pak-Choi
- Carrots
- Mange-Tout/Sugar Snap Peas
- Beansprouts
- Broccoli
- Cabbage (red or green)
- Courgette (Zucchini)
- Fresh Lime Juice
- Chili
- Coriander
- Vegetable Bouillon
- Brown Basmati Rice/Wild Rice

1. Pulp the coriander with a pestle and mortar along with the finely chopped chili, adding lime juice as you go to make a dressing/sauce. Then set aside to infuse.
2. Now chop all of the vegetables fairly finely (so that they will cook quickly). Steam these until they are only just cooked (still a little crunchy).
3. Now place all ingredients on a bed of fluffy, steamed rice and cover with the coriander and lime-chili sauce.

*Optionally you can steam fry the vegetables in a vegetable bouillon stock if you do not have a steamer.

*I have not included quantities, as it is probably best to find your own way. Also, of course, feel free to just use whatever vegetables you have available to you.
